

Sahar Al-Makhamreh was the head of Department of Social work and dean assistance for developing and planning at AL-Balqa Applied University and at German Jordanian University. She was responsible for the Professional Diploma and Master Programme in social work with Refugees and migration. Sahar Al-Makhamreh has been and is leading several EU research projects in Jordan and has extensive teaching experience in social work at Jordanian Universities as well as several EU universities at MA programme. Sahar Al-Makhamreh is one of the cofounders of the Jordanian Association of Social Worker, currently one of cofounders of MENA Civil Society Network for Displaced World Refugees acted as a consultant to national strategies. Sahar Al-Makhamreh is Currently focusing on developing social work teaching programme and interventions in Jordan.